-:o:-

According to the G.M.cited second above, the preliminary and final publications of the electoral rolls, and other programme of revision work in the three constituencies of Kumbla, Panemangalore and Mulky have to be followed as in the case of intensive revision areas. A major portion of Mulky Assembly Constituency and portions of Panemangalore and Kumbla constituencies lie in Mangalore Taluk. The work connected with the publications of the preliminary lists of amendments sittings of the Revising Authority final publication of the electoral rolls etc.has to be done according to the programme drawn up for intensive revision areas i.e. between 20.4.56 and 20.8.56. It, is therefore, also not necessary to retain the staff sanctioned in G.O.4060 Public (Elections)dated 23.12.55 beyond 30.6.56. I request that the Government may be pleased to sanction the retentions of the staff for Mangalore Taluk beyond 30.6.56 as in the case of intensive revision areas.

Yours faithfully

For Collector.

Order:

With reference to the orders ~~issued~~ first read above in paragraph 15 of the G.O. ~~cited~~, ~~the~~ temporary staff of one Election Dy.Tahsildar, ~~and~~ one Typist and one peon has been employed in the taluk office, Mangalore for the revision of electoral rolls this year. The Mangalore taluk is a non-intensive revision area but it includes parts of the Kumbla, Mulki and Panemangalore Assembly constituencies which have intensive revisio parts lying in other taluks. As the publica tion of the electoral rolls has to be made by constituencies as a whole, the programme as in intensive revision areas has to be followed for the preliminary publication and ~~for the~~ further stages on the above constituencies. The Government therefore sanction the retention of the temporary staff mentioned above upto 20-8-1956 or till the necessity for it ceases, whichever is earlier, subject to the condition that the post of typist is kept in abeyance during the period the preliminary rolls are under print and finally abolished as soon as the final lists of amendments are sent to the press.

Subj: Electoral Rolls – M.L.A. – Annual Revision, 1956 – South Kanara Dt. – Retention of ~~special staff~~ the post of temporary V.O. clerks ~~for~~ sanctioned for rolls revision work in the Taluk offices, Mangalore ~~from 1.6.56 to 28.2.1957~~ from 30.6.56 to 28.8.1956. – Proposal

Ref: From the Collector of South Kanara, Ref. A 834271/55 dated 29.3.1956

Please see the letter from the Collector of South Kanara on ~~file~~ ICF.

In Govt. Memo No 706/56-1 P.E.(1), dated 28.2.1956, the Collector of South Kanara was informed that the programme of work connected with the ~~prely~~ + final publication of rolls in ~~Constituencies~~ new Assembly which consist partly of intensive revision areas and partly of ~~non~~ non-intensive revision areas should be followed as prescribed for intensive revision areas. This ~~that~~ became necessary as the publication of the rolls has to be made in respect of each constituency as a whole under the new R P (PER) Rules, 1956 and not in respect of each electoral area separately. The Collector of South Kanara has now ~~forwarded~~ that the programme of work in three

Assembly Constituencies of Kumbla Panemangalore & Mulki which consist partly of intensive revision areas and partly of non-intensive revision areas has to be followed as in the case of constituencies which are wholly intensive revision areas & that a major portion of the Mulki Assembly Constituency & portions of Panemangalore & Kumbla Constituencies lie in Mangalore Taluk. The Collector has therefore requested & suggested that special staff of one Dy. Tahsildar & one typist at one place that has been allowed to be employed in the Taluk office, Mangalore as in the case of other non-intensive revision areas may be continued till 20.8.1956. as in the case of intensive revision areas the Collector has not specified the special staff employed in the Taluk office, Mangalore for the rolls revision work. In non-intensive revision area discretion has been given to Collector to employ Revenue Inspectors in lieu of Dy. Tahsildars. The Collector of S. Kanara may perhaps be asked

Ref. A.8 34271/56 dated 24.4.56)

The Collector of South Kanara has forwarded reported that the temporary special staff employed in the Taluk office, Mangalore for the rolls revision work consists of one Electrician Dy. Tahs. one typist and one peon. The Collector has already pointed out the need for continuing the special staff beyond 30.6.56 upto 20.8.56 so that the work relating to the ~~to~~ new Assembly Constituencies consisting partly in intensive revision areas and partly of non-intensive revision areas may be carried out in accordance with the programme applicable to intensive revision areas as instructed by Govt. In the circumstances it is for consideration whether the temporary staff of Electrical Dep Data, one typist and one peon employed in the taluk office, Mangalore will be ordered to be retained beyond 30.6.58 upto 20.8.58 subject to the condition that the post of typist is kept in abeyance during the period the prely. rolls are under print and finally abolished as soon as the manuscript final lists of amendments are sent to the press.
